

The Long Shadow of Childhood Adversity on Health: Evidence from Ireland and Policy Implications

A Conference Organised by the Centre for Longitudinal Studies in Ireland (CLSI)

Sponsored by  THE POWER TO KNOW.

PROGRAMME

- 09.00 Welcome: Professor Frances Ruane, Director, ESRI
- 09.10 Opening Address: Frances Fitzgerald TD, Minister for Children and Youth Affairs
- 09.30 Childhood Influences on Lifelong Health and Ageing: Evidence from the British 1946 Birth Cohort Study
Prof. Diane Kuh, Director of the 1946 Birth Cohort Study and the MRC Unit for Lifelong Health and Ageing

Session 1: Evidence from the TILDA Study

Chair: Prof. Frances Ruane (ESRI)

- 10.10 The Experience of Childhood Adversity and Disease Risk in Later Life
Dr Cathal McCrory, TCD
- 10.30 The Early-Life Causes and Later Life Consequences of Migration
Dr Irene Mosca, TCD
- 10.50 Questions and Answers
- 11.00 Short Refreshment Break

Session 2: Evidence from the GUI Study

Chair: Dr. Sean Denyer (Dept. Children and Youth Affairs)

- 11.30 Adverse Life Events in Childhood and Later Psychological Adjustment
Prof. James Williams, ESRI and Prof. Mark Morgan, TCD
- 11.50 Life Course Models of Health Inequalities: Evidence from the Growing Up in Ireland Cohort Study
Prof. Richard Layte, ESRI
- 12.10 Social Spending Across the Child's Lifecycle: International Variation and its Consequences
Dr Dominic Richardson, OECD
- 12.50 Questions and Answers
- 13.00 Close of Conference